

FIRST PRINCIPLE

norfolk.police.uk/firstprinciple
suffolk.police.uk/firstprinciple

All your Crime Prevention Information in one place

Norfolk and Suffolk Police have a concise collection of Crime Prevention Information leaflets

“1st Principle”

It often takes just a few small steps and some simple changes to make you safer and to feel more secure.

1st Principle will give you advice and tips for a range of crime prevention issues. There are even some self-assessment forms to enable you check your home security and help you to make improvements.

To see the full range of information go to :

suffolk.police.uk/firstprinciple

norfolk.police.uk/firstprinciple

Or alternatively use your mobile phone to scan this QR code.

POLICE
NORFOLK & SUFFOLK
working together for you

FIRST PRINCIPLE

norfolk.police.uk/firstprinciple
suffolk.police.uk/firstprinciple

POLICE
NORFOLK & SUFFOLK
working together for you

1st Principle takes its name from the founder of the modern Police Force, Sir Robert Peel. He established 9 Principles of Policing. The first of these being:

“The basic mission for which the police exist is to prevent crime and disorder.”

If you don't have access to the Internet and would like more crime prevention information, you can contact your local Community Engagement Officer on 101.

To find who the Community Engagement Officer is for your area go to the following links:

If you live in Suffolk

[https://www.suffolk.police.uk/contact-us/other-contact-options/
community-engagement-officers](https://www.suffolk.police.uk/contact-us/other-contact-options/community-engagement-officers)

If you live in Norfolk

<https://www.norfolk.police.uk/your-area>